

We started in Dedham. We've grown in Dedham.

*And we are still right here, helping Dedham families and
Dedham businesses as they grow, too.*

From 1831 to 2007.
Here Today. Here Tomorrow.

*Dedham Savings. What's in a name?
Everything.*

There are a lot of changes going on in the banking community here in Dedham and we wish everyone well, to be sure. It's true that "time passes and things change," as they say. But not everything changes. There are still some things you can count on.

We're still called Dedham Savings, and we really, really like it that way.

Eight branches, nearing $1 billion in assets, we are a solid, independent Mutual Savings bank, serving your neighborhood, your neighbors and you, too, we hope.

We've got the best in community banking waiting for you: loans, mortgages, Great Rate CDs, online banking, great checking accounts and lots of personal service with a big smile.

Yesterday, today, tomorrow.

And, just like Bob Hanson, you, too, can take that to the bank.

Bob Hanson has a Dedham Savings
passbook for the ages ...
An account opened in 1832 is still open today.

Bob Hanson, above, is a Dedham native and longtime resident. He is also clerk-treasurer of The Society in Dedham for the Apprehension of Horse Thieves, established in 1832. Their account with Dedham Savings may be the oldest and most continuously active account in the United States.
